Thank you Robbie

As an addition to Fr James' words last week, we would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to Robbie for his assistance and dedication over the last eight years. Robbie has always gone above and beyond his duties, helping with anything that needed doing, whether it be heavy work, problem solving and more. He has been the driving force behind many improvements and repairs for the churches, parish grounds and office. Along with office duties he has also been an enthusiastic volunteer and can be found most Saturday mornings working alongside the gardening group here at Gowrie.

Change is inevitable and is often feared. However, in order to move ahead, change is necessary. We will miss Robbie in the office environment, but we hope to continue to see him active in our parish community.

We ask for your prayers as we begin the new year in a new office structure and your patience as we adjust to new or additional duties.

Once again, thank you Robbie, for your friendship and support over the past eight years.
